Casio G-Shock solar watch

Atomic timekeeping precision for just £89.99, saving £60 on the recommended retail price (rrp)

This state-of-the-art radio-controlled watch from G-Shock features atomic timekeeping to ensure perfect timing via radio signals. It features 'dual band' which, unlike similar products, allows it to switch between UK and Europe time signal transmitters in Rugby and Frankfurt.

The G-Shock has automatic time adjustment so it will update for British Summer and Winter times as well as Central European Time via its world time mode.

The solar-powered shock-resistant face has hour and minute hands together with three smaller LCD displays, a day/date function, 29 time zones (30 cities), daylight saving and an LED light source. Water-resistant to 200 metres, the G-Shock has a blue face, robust stainless steel strap and is guaranteed for 24 months.
