

British Food Fortnight

We do everything we can to support British farmers and promote homegrown produce. If you would also like to take part in the biggest annual celebration of British food and drink, read on ...

40-1

There are hundreds of events celebrating British food and drink, taking place in pubs, restaurants, schools, hospitals and care homes across the UK. To find out about events in your area, head to lovebritishfood.co.uk. or the Love British Food Facebook page. Join in on Twitter too by using #LoveBritishFood.

40-2

Food that's purchased and consumed around the time that it is harvested, tastes better and is often cheaper too. Plus, by eating it you'll be supporting British producers. For more information, see the 'Time to taste' chart in the May/June edition of our digi mag at coop.co.uk/foodmagazine.

40-3

Organise a British Food gathering in your home, street or at a local venue. Invite your neighbours, friends and family for a tea party or meal, and ask everyone to bring a British dish to share. It's a great way to meet people living in your local community. If you want to enter your event into the Love British Food competition, visit lovebritishfood.co.uk/british-food-fortnight. You could win a trophy, a case of champagne and £250 in Co-op vouchers.
