

Capture the moment

5 Now, instead of having to strain to remember an event, we can scroll through our phones and find images to refresh our memories. People have always relied on memory aids. A memento, such as a souvenir from a holiday, doesn't replace our memory, but enhances it, just like a photo. Besides, photographs are better than memories. Over time, our memories change and fade. Nowadays, with our mobile phones, we can take pictures at every opportunity.
